ASDVA's Membership Newsletter

Greetings and Salutations to our Members!

We have initiated a monthly newsletter to keep you up-to-date on Society events and news. We hope this will be informative and useful to you. We encourage everyone to become active members in the Society and hope that you will share your ideas, energy, and enthusiasm. If you have any suggestions for events, fundraising, education, and/or outreach, please send us a message any time at artdecova.membership@gmail.com.

Membership

We would like to welcome our new Society members Nathan Hurtz, Katherine Johnstone and Henry Hundley and thank you for joining the Society. If you have not already, you will be receiving your membership card in the mail shortly. If you are not a member of our facebook group page, please "like" us so you can get additional information on events for the Society and posting of Art Deco related information. Just search for Art Deco Society of Virginia.

News

The Society has sent in our application for nonprofit status. We hope to have our 501(c)(3) status within the coming months. This will help us with our preservation and fundraising endeavors.

Our first large preservation event, the Jazz Age Preservation Ball will be held in Richmond at the Bolling Haxall House on Saturday, January 19, 2013. We are proud to partner with the Byrd Theatre Foundation as our recipient of our first preservation effort. The Byrd Theatre is a beautiful Richmond theater built in 1928. More information about the event can be found on our Web site at <http://www.artdecova.org/jazz-age-preservation-ball/>.

Events in December

The Board has decided not to hold an official event during this busy time of year, but that does not mean that we will be idle this month! The theme of December is "Promotion! Promotion! Promotion!" for our Jazz Age Preservation Ball. We would like all of you to be involved with this effort. Here are some things you can do to help us promote the event:

- Buy your ticket for the Ball. Society Members receive a $5 discount. You can purchase a ticket from the ADSVA website (artdecova.org) or buy a paper ticket at Bygones Vintage Clothing, 2916 West Cary Street, Richmond, VA 23221.
- Invite your friends to the Ball! You can add them to our facebook event (<http://www.facebook.com/events/523389881021699/?ref=ts&fref=ts>), or just send them an email with information about the Ball.

- Publicize our underwriting campaign through Indiegogo to fund the ball by inviting them through facebook (<http://www.facebook.com/events/335283966571016/?ref=ts&fref=ts>) or send them the link to Indiegogo directly (<http://www.indiegogo.com/JazzAgePreservationBall>).
- Volunteer to promote the Ball at the following events:
 - Saturday, December 1 -The Richmond Burlesque Review presents: Naughty and Nice. A Holiday Spectacular. 8:00 pm at Gallery 5, 200 W. Marshall St., Richmond, VA. Pop in and say hi and help out our President, Olivia Lloyd, as she (wo)mans a table for the Society. She will also have Ball tickets to sell at this event.
 - Sunday, December 2 - Byrlesque at the Byrd. We will be handing out fliers to attendees outside the Byrd Theater between 6:30 and 7:30 pm. 2908 West Cary Street, Richmond, VA 23221. Dress to be noticed!
 - Friday, December 7 - 1920s-Era Bomb at First Friday Art Walk. 5:30ish to 8:00ish pm. We will set up at a location TBD and dance the Charleston and the “news boys” will hand out fliers for the Ball. It’s just an excuse to make a 1920’s spectacle of ourselves.
 - Friday and Saturday, December 7 & 8 - Hamaganza, Richmond’s First and Worse Variety Show. 9 p.m. We will work the door at this annual charity event to benefit Feedmore by taking tickets and hams while chatting up the Society. We especially need volunteers Saturday evening. The Friday night show will be at Hardywood Park Craft Brewery, 2408 Ownby Lane, Richmond, VA. The Saturday evening show will be located at Lulu’s (in Shockoe Bottom), 21 N. 17th St., Richmond, VA. Dress to the nines!

Please send an email to artdecova.membership if you would like to participate in any of our promotional events.
